

Brussels, 6th June 2018

Dear Sir or Madam,

On behalf of ERRIN (European Region Research and Innovation Network) I have the pleasure to invite you to the event:

“The Road from War to Peace, More Democracy and European Integration.
War Architecture, Sites and Memories as Part of European Heritage and History”

100 years after the end of World War I, the event will focus on the wars raging in Europe between 1914 and 1945, as well as other relevant events before and after that period that shaped and changed the European in many ways. The event will address political as well as educational aspects of memories and memorial sites and explore the role of war memories for our common European History and European Identity. The conference is part of the official programme of the European Year of Cultural Heritage 2018.

The event will take place on

Tuesday, 3rd July 2018, from 09:30 to 13:15 h at the House of European History to the EU, Rue Belliard 135, 1000 Brussels.

This invitation is strictly personal and registration for the event is possible until 22nd June via email (events-bxl@europa.bremen.de). Please note that participation without registration will not be possible and that registration will be on first come, first served basis since the number of seats for security reason is strictly limited. If you plan to attend only part of the meeting, please notify us ahead of time. In case of oversubscription, there will be a waiting list.

Please be also informed that registration on the day will start at 08:45 and that a valid identity card or equivalent is necessary to access the building.

I look forward to welcoming you to the event
Martina Hilger
(On behalf of ERRIN)

Please be advised that photos will be taken during the event. By participating, you allow ERRIN and the partners of the event to take photographs of you and use your likeness in the press, on websites, in social media (e.g. Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Instagram) and other publications.
